Voice

It takes an old - time love song,
One day we may be hap - py,

Till Ready

p p

To keep this old world young; Each heart must have a love song, Next day we may re - gret; Some things that we re - mem - ber,

Tho' some are nev - er sung: Some peo - ple wor-ship mon - ey,
We wish we could for - get: Some-times you may be lone - ly,

The song of clink - ing gold; But moth - er's song at In dark - ness you may roam; But moth - er's song at twi - light, Brings you right back to the fold.

twi - light, Keeps tell - ing you to go home.

CHORUS Slow

There's an old-time mel - o - dy, I heard long a - go;

p-f

Moth - er called it the Ros - a - ry, She sang it soft and low; With - -out an-y rhyme, With-out an-y prose, I e-ven for-get how the mel-o-dy goes; But ten ba-by fin-gers and ten ba-by toes,— She'd watch them by— the set-ting sun,— And when her dai-ly work was done,— She'd count them each and ev-'ry one,— That was "My Moth-er's Ros-a-ry."— ry."—
