The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The piano accompaniment begins with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, marked mf. The vocal line enters with the lyrics "In Sa-van-nah, Geor-gia, lives a dusk-y maid, I In Sa-van-nah, Geor-gia, there is go-ing to be a". The piano accompaniment continues with a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, marked p. The vocal line continues with the lyrics "calls her sweet Sa-van-nah Lize; On this lit-tle South-ern gal ma fan-cy col-ored wed-ding soon, And of all the brides to be there's heart is sure-ly laid, With-in ma heart I know I've got a prize; none so fair as she, And I will be ma lit-tle Liz-a's groom;". The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.
