2d. MR. S. WESLEY MARTIN is not only remarkably talented as a composer, but he is unusually able and successful as a conductor of Choirs, Conventions, Institutes and Oratorio Concerts. He knows just what suits singers and audiences, and has provided it in this book. (It would be well if New England Conventions could get Mr. Martin to infuse them with his Western enthusiasm.)

3d. The Chants, Tunes and Anthems in the sacred department of the book fully justify and enhance the long established reputation of Wm. H. Walter, Mus. Doc. The Welcome Hour is THE BOOK
