Rose - dreams float - ing on the breeze, Take me back to you once Su - gar cane is grow - ing tall, Cot - ton fields are white once more; — In love's gar - den you were the rose That more; — Whip - poor - will — is call - ing to me, While bloomed for me in a day; — But I oft - times fear that some bright stars shine from a - bove; — 'Neath the South - ern, moon I'll be strange wind, dear, may bear your love a - way. — croon - ing soon, to you my la - dy love. —

CHORUS

Swa-nee Rose — hear my lov-ing plea, Keep a place — in your heart for me, p f

Soon I'll come — like the hon-ey bee, Where my flow - er grows; —

And at night — when the pale moon glows, Way down South — where the riv-er flows,

I'll make love — to my Swa-nee Rose. —

CHORUS

Music by
J. S. ZAMECNIK

Just an old sweet-heart of mine, Eyes that were soft and blue,
She was shy and so was I, When we were sweet-hearts true, Down where the old willow tree, Shaded the lily vine, In my dreams, I see, it seems, just an old sweet-heart of mine, mine,
