THE CAULDRON RAG.

By AXEL CHRISTENSEN.

Intro.

Musical notation for the Intro section. The piece is in 2/4 time. The right hand (treble clef) begins with a series of chords, marked with a forte f dynamic. The left hand (bass clef) plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The section concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Slowly.

Musical notation for the Slowly section. The tempo is marked Slowly. The right hand (treble clef) features a series of chords, marked with a piano p dynamic. The left hand (bass clef) continues with the eighth-note accompaniment. The section concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Musical notation for the third section. The right hand (treble clef) features a series of chords, marked with a forte f dynamic. The left hand (bass clef) continues with the eighth-note accompaniment. The section concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Musical notation for the fourth section. The right hand (treble clef) features a series of chords, marked with a piano p dynamic. The left hand (bass clef) continues with the eighth-note accompaniment. The section concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The first system of musical notation for 'The Cauldron Rag'. It consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The treble staff begins with a series of chords and a melodic line, marked with a forte f dynamic. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The system concludes with a first ending bracket labeled '1' and a second ending bracket labeled '2'.

The second system of musical notation. The treble staff features a complex, rapid passage marked with a fortissimo f-ff dynamic and includes triplets. The bass staff continues the accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The third system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the rapid melodic and harmonic patterns, with triplets indicated. The bass staff maintains the accompaniment.

The fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff shows further development of the rapid passages, including triplets. The bass staff continues with the accompaniment.

The fifth system of musical notation, which concludes the piece. It features first and second endings in both the treble and bass staves, marked with first and second ending brackets.

Trio.

The musical score is for a piano piece in 2/4 time, featuring a Trio section. It consists of five systems of two staves each. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The Trio section begins with a repeat sign and a first ending bracket. The final system includes triplets and an 8va (octave) marking.

The musical score is for a piece titled "The Cauldron Rag - 4." It is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The score consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The first three systems are marked "8va" (octave 8) and feature a melody in the treble staff with triplets and a bass line with chords and single notes. The fourth system begins with a piano (p) dynamic, followed by a crescendo to fortissimo (ff). It includes a melodic line in the treble staff and a bass line with chords and single notes. The piece concludes with a final chord in the bass staff.

MUSIC REVIEW

Edited and Published by Axel W. Christensen, the "Czar of Ragtime"
A Monthly Magazine for Amateur and Professional Pianists
$1.00 per Year

This beautiful magazine contains every month a number of new and snappy rags, songs and popular music for the piano—in fact, the music contained in one issue will easily pay for your whole year's subscription.

The magazine maintains an instruction department, conducted by Axel Christensen, where will be answered free of charge questions pertaining to the playing of ragtime and popular music.

A correspondence course in vaudeville and picture piano playing is published in serial form.

Popular melodies are published in their original form, side by side with the same melodies converted into real ragtime.

All the new popular music of the country is reviewed the minute it comes off the press, so that you can be up to date at all times and know what's new, what's good and what to buy. This feature alone will make you the musical leader in your locality.

And there will always be "Heart-to-Heart" talks, articles and editorials by Axel Christensen himself, which will be a help and assistance to all persons studying or playing ragtime and popular music.

The above are only some of the features that are contained in this magazine—we haven't time to tell you more here—but we can assure you that it will be of vital interest and importance to every person who plays the piano and loves popular music. It contains nothing dry—nothing classic—only that happy, snappy, pulsating "rag" and the songs and melodies that make for happiness and delight.

Therefore send a dollar and subscribe now—for this new and wonderful magazine.
