

Calling Sweetheart for You

Refrain

The Dawn of Our Love Was When I Met You, Dear
All The World Seemed So Different To Me.
Like The Sun High Above Warmer Than Grew My Love.
And I Thought You Spoke Truthfully:
But Your Cold-Hardened Heart Was False From The Start
And Although You Have Proven Untrue.
When Shadows Are Falling, My Poor Heart Is Calling
Calling, Sweetheart, For You

Music by WIRT DENISON

The gold-en sun is set-ting,— The twink-ling stars ap-pear,— The twi-light shad-ows
Our love could be so diff'rent,— If on-ly you were true,— I won-der if you mf

deep-en,— While I'm think-ing of you dear,— Our love was like the sunshine,— But I know it know dear,— How much I think of you,— How much I miss your pres-ence,— The per-fume could not last,— Love went a-way like the close of day, And be-came a thing of the past.—

of your hair,— Your sun-ny smile that made life worth while, Then per-haps you'll learn to care.—

REFRAIN

The dawn of our love was when I met you dear, All the world seemed so different to me,— Like the sun high above, warmer than grew my love, And I thought that you spoke truth-fully,— But your cold hard-ened heart was false from the start, And although you have proven untrue,— When shadows are falling my poor heart is calling, Calling sweetheart for you.— The you.
