

50788

NOT DELIVERED TO THE
MAY 8 - 1900
Music Department

The Songs OF

Little Jennie Yeamans.

Words by GORDIAN K. HYDE.

Music by DAVID BRAHAM.

Sailing on the Lake. Song & Chorus.
The Boot-black. Character Song & Dance.
You're the Idol of my Heart. Double Song & Dance.

NEW YORK.

Published by W. A. Pond & Co. 547 Broadway.

CHICAGO, SIX FRANCHISES, ST. PAUL, PITTSBURG, MILWAUKEE, DAYTON, SAN JOSE, BOSTON, NEW HAVEN, HUST & LEWIS, M. GRAY, WEISS & ROSS, WALKER & CO., H. H. PERCOTT, LUDEN & BATEL, ANALYST & CO., S. H. COLLING, QUINER & SPERRY

SOLE RECORDING TRACT BY COPYRIGHT IN THE YEAR 1897 BY W. A. POND & CO. IN THE OFFICE OF CLARENCE H. CHAMBERLAIN AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

LITH. BY R. T. ELLEN, 120 WOODSTER ST. N.Y.

SONG AND DANCE.
 THE BOOT BLACK,

OR

"I'M AS HAPPY AS ANY ONE CAN BE"

Sung by
 'Little' JENNIE YEAMANS.

Words by GORDIAN K. HYDE.
 Music by DAVID BRAHAM.

1mo. 2do.

1. Be - fore you now you see the boy, Who's al-ways full of fun..... I
 2. I serve the rich al - so the poor, And use them all the same..... Of
 3. I've got my eye up - on a girl, And to her I'll be true..... She carries my shop up - on my back, I'm al-ways on the run. And all the folks they course I try to do my best, To bring them back a - gain. You'll al-ways find me keeps a lit - tle pa - per stand, Up - on the A - ven - ue. When I grow up to look at me with won-der in their eye..... And you can tell when I'm about, For gay and free To please of course I try..... And you can tell when I'm about, For be a man To win her then I'll try..... With fortune made well then retire, No

8525

CHORUS.

you can hear me cry..... (SPOKEN) I'm as happy as an - y one can you can hear me cry..... Black yer boots,
 more you'll hear me cry..... shine 'em up

STEP

be..... The banjo I ring I dance and I sing, Its all the same to me.....

Im as happy as an-y one can be..... The banjo I ring I dance and I sing, Its all the same to me.....

DANCE.