A SONG FOR THE MILLIONS!

I know you'll be glad to welcome his 1915 song hit "Loveland Days"—It's just about the most "catchy" song he's ever written, and in that easy swinging march tempo that is in style right now. "Loveland Days" is already a stage hit with many of the big Vaudeville acts, but by Fall we expect it to be a song "craze" from Coast to Coast, for it certainly has that wonderful "something" that we simply can't resist. "Loveland Days" is an ideal song for home, because you can all sing and enjoy it, and I know you want every song written by W. R. Williams—because he is one of the few writers who touches the right spot in our hearts. Be sure and get your copy from your local dealer, and if he's "just out"—drop a line to Will Rossiter—he's always glad to hear from you and always glad to send you his big Mail-Order catalog of "Special Bargains" and Free Premiums.

"When I Met You Last Night in Dreamland"

Guess most of you know W. R. Williams and his many songs. He writes the "home" kind of songs—the kind that live. You remember his song "I'd Love to Live in Loveland with a Girl Like You"—you remember that dainty little song "When the Moon Plays Peek-a-boo"—his great Indian song "Nanabee"—his ballads "You Were All I Had", "When I Met You Last Night in Dreamland"—and hundreds of others—and so

The Prettiest Little Song in Years.

About once in every twenty years or so, some song is written that startles the world—Nobody knows "how it happened or whence it came"—but it gets here just the same. Some songs are "made" by the Publishers spending thousands of dollars to boom and push them just like "Patent Medicine"—but others "just happen"—and work their own way into our hearts without any of us knowing or realizing anything about the strange phenomena. This new song "You're The Dawn of a Perfect Day"—is one of this kind—born of an inspiration it blooms and blossoms for us all, creeping silently (as it were) into our hearts, bringing us at all times peace and consolation. This song appeals strongly to those of refined taste—the lyric is perfect and the melody is both restful and beautiful, and no home collection will be complete without this song.—To have a copy in your home means you understand and appreciate refinement, and we suggest if this song appeals to you as it does to us, that you send a copy to some friend who maybe has not heard from you in a long, long time. By doing that we will all feel better. Life is short and fleeting—so we should do these little things as we go along This song is published in many keys—for all instruments, solos, etc., quartettes and bands—

"You're The Dawn of a Perfect Day" will live till the end of time.

First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff contains a dense, rhythmic pattern of chords, likely representing chimes. The bass clef staff contains a melodic line with a dynamic marking of ff (fortissimo) at the beginning.

Second system of musical notation. The treble clef staff continues the dense chordal texture. The bass clef staff features a melodic line with a long, sweeping slur across several measures.

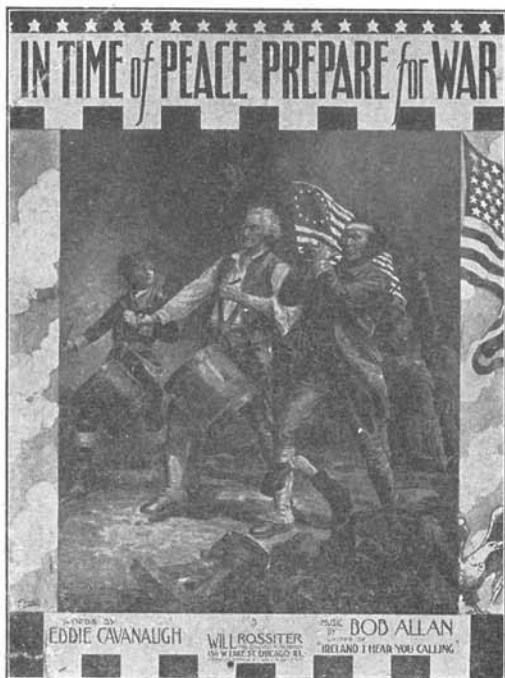

Third system of musical notation. The treble clef staff shows a continuation of the chime-like texture. The bass clef staff has a melodic line with a slur and a sharp sign (#) indicating a key signature change.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff maintains the complex chordal texture. The bass clef staff continues the melodic line with a slur.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff shows the chime texture. The bass clef staff features a melodic line with a long slur.

Sixth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff continues the chime texture. The bass clef staff has a melodic line with a slur.

NEVER in my recollection has the United States of America been so "united" on any one subject, as they are right now on "Preparedness." The old saying "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," is indeed true in this case, for after the lesson we have been learning, the past two years, from Europe's most cruel war, we must know that a mighty nation like ours—the U. S. A.—must have mighty and ample protection. That one word PROTECTION has always been the keystone of this country's success in the past, and PROTECTION in its every meaning, is the one thing that will continue to make this country the greatest in the world. Everybody that's anybody is "breathing" the "spirit of '76" and "In Time of Peace Prepare for War"—and we have the one important song—a new National song that is going to help the cause. We're going to sing it in halls and theatres, and the children are going to pick it up, and they will, we hope, be singing it in the Public Schools, for it's "from the Public Schools of today we must find our real Americans of the future." Anything we can do to instill into the rising generations the same kind of patriotism that has made this country world famous, is a good work—and a great work—and we can all help in this mighty work by boosting this one big idea of the hour—"In Time of Peace Prepare for War"—get a copy and see that the children learn to sing it—that's the way to carry it along. THERE are lots of beautiful songs written, and lots of them published every year — we have published many of them ourselves, so we feel we know a good one when we see it. In this new one we think we have not only a good ballad, but a "great" ballad, we think it's one of the best that W. R. Williams has ever written. The theme of this new ballad is that life as we find it, is so wonderful, so beautiful, and there is so much real joy in living, that no matter what the future may hold in store for us "All joy fades away, in the thought of the day, when I bid the world goodbye." This song we consider a worthy companion to "YOU'RE THE DAWN OF A PERFECT DAY"—one of the biggest steady sellers on the market—also by W. R. Williams. The titlepage of "WHEN I BID THE WORLD GOOD-BYE" is also a most artistic creation—in fact, this beautiful song in every way is a great credit to any home, for it shows a taste of refinement in your selections. You can secure it through your local dealer, ask for latest music catalog. IT'S FREE FOR THE ASKING.
