

HARRY OF THE WEST
A Song,

Written & Sung on the Occasion of the

RECEPTION OF

HENRY CLAY.

In the City of NEW YORK March 7th 1848.

BY THE

HUTCHINSON FAMILY.

Words by

Music by

Jesse Hutchinson, Jr. John W. Hutchinson.

NEW YORK

Published by C. HOLT, Jr. 156 Fulton St.

Entered according to Act of Congress AD 1848 by C. Holt, Jr. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the S. D. of New York.

478.

Deposited in Clerk's Office Co. Dist. N.Y. March 18. 1848.

HARRY OF THE WEST,

Composed & Sung by the

HUTCHINSON FAMILY.

Moderato
marziale.

Introduction for piano, featuring a melody in the right hand and accompaniment in the left hand. The music is in 6/8 time and begins with a forte (f) dynamic.

Continuation of the piano accompaniment, showing the right and left hand parts.

1st. f Come brothers rouse, let's hurry out To see our hon - or'd Guest: For Piano accompaniment for the first vocal line, corresponding to the lyrics above.

lo! in ev - 'ry street they shout "Brave Harry of the West." For Piano accompaniment for the second vocal line, corresponding to the lyrics above.

lo! in ev - - ry street they shout, "Brave Har.ry of the West?"

eolla voce. f

Continuation of piano accompaniment from the first system.

2a. The Ci - - ty now is all a - wake, And in her lau - rels dress'd, And voi - ces make the wel . kin shake, For "Harry of the West." And voi . ces make the wel . kin shake, For "Harry of the West?"

colla voce.

3

The women, too, and children sweet,
Are singing with the rest,
And weaving garlands in the street,
For "Harry of the West?"

4

Old Broadway now is all alive,
And every heart seems blest
As th' word goes round, he'll soon arrive,
Brave Harry of the West?"

5

Behold! the aged Statesman comes!
In highest honors dressed;
No conqu'ring hero ever shone,
Like "Harry of the West?"

6

Nor shall a party feeling dare
To raise one narrow test,
But all shall in the tribute share,
To "Harry of the West?"

7

For th' glorious day is coming near
When Wrong shall be redressed,
And Freedom's Star shine bright and clear
On "Harry of the West?"

8

Then hail! all hail! thrice-honor'd Sage,
Our most distinguished guest!
We'll venerate thy good old age,
Brave "Harry of the West?"