VALUE.

Musical score for "VALSE." in 3/4 time, marked mf and Red. The score is written for piano and features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The piece concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is in the upper staff, and the piano accompaniment is in the lower staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The piano part features a prominent melody in the right hand, often with triplets, and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The song concludes with a final chord in the piano and a fermata over the last note of the voice part.

A musical score for the song 'The Rose Tree'. It features a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The score includes a first ending (marked '1.') and a second ending (marked '2.'). The second ending leads back to the beginning of the piece.

This page contains six systems of musical notation for piano, arranged in two columns of three systems each. The notation is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first system begins with a mf dynamic. The second and third systems include a Red. marking and an asterisk. The fourth system features a f dynamic. The fifth system starts with a p dynamic. The sixth system includes a cresc. marking and a f dynamic. The notation includes various chords, arpeggios, and melodic lines with slurs and accents.

The musical score consists of seven systems of piano notation. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The second and third systems continue the melodic and harmonic development. The fourth system includes first and second endings, marked with 1. and 2., and features dynamics such as p, cresc., f, and frit. p. The fifth system is labeled CODA. and begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and a tempo marking. The sixth and seventh systems conclude the piece, with the sixth system marked Red. and the seventh system marked cresc..

This page contains seven systems of musical notation for a piano piece. The notation is written for both the right and left hands on grand staves. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4.

The first system begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system includes a piano (p) dynamic and a crescendo (cresc.) marking. The third system is marked Grandioso. and features a fortissimo (ff) dynamic. The fourth and fifth systems include a Red. (Reduction) marking and an asterisk (*). The sixth system continues the musical development. The seventh system is marked Allegro. and includes a rit. (ritardando) marking, followed by a ff a tempo instruction and a final fortissimo (ff) dynamic.

PRESS NOTICES.

THE TIMES.

"The audience last night was uproariously happy."

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH.

"Before the spectators dispersed last night they were already whistling the refrains. No better test of popularity could be wanted."

THE DAILY SKETCH.

"The music of Jean Gilbert is as charming as anything that has been imported for the last few years."

THE MORNING POST.

"The Girl in the Taxi' was greatly liked, and if continuous applause be any guarantee she must be in for a long ride."

THE DAILY EXPRESS.

"The Girl in the Taxi' Waltz has that lazy, dreamy lilt about it, half sweet, half sad, that makes the perfect waltz."

THE DAILY NEWS AND LEADER.

"There is a waltz to which the audience paid the supreme tribute of whistling it before the evening was done."

THE STANDARD.

"Among the musical numbers, all delightful, the plum is the Waltz—a lilt that's mazy and dreamy and hazy."

THE MORNING ADVERTISER.

"The best thing about 'The Girl in the Taxi' which faced 'first-nighters' last night is its music—for which M. Jean Gilbert is responsible."

PALL MALL.

"Suzanne, we love you to a man' is an excellent piece of work."

THE EVENING NEWS.

"The audience joined the Orchestra during the interval in Gilbert's haunting and exhilarating Waltz."

WEEKLY DISPATCH.

"There is some very pretty music, tuneful spirited music."

THE EVENING STANDARD.

"The joyous, exhilarating music of Jean Gilbert's, all London will soon be humming 'The Girl in the Taxi' Waltz—a luscious refrain."

THE REFEREE.

"We have pretty tunes including a Waltz, which will take the town as surely as the 'Chocolate Soldier' or 'The Merry Widow.'"

THE STAR.

"There is a Waltz in it which was whistled by the audience before 10 o'clock."

THE OBSERVER.

"The Girl in the Taxi' is going to be a huge success."

LLOYDS WEEKLY NEWS.

"The new production at the Lyric is quite the brightest thing of its kind since 'The Merry Widow.'"

THE SUNDAY TIMES.

"Suzanne! Suzanne! we love you to a man!' took the fancy of the audience so much that repetition was demanded."

THE ERA.

"The Girl in the Taxi' will enjoy a very long life."

THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN.

"There is a Waltz, which as the audience was whistling before the play was half finished we shall probably have a surfeit."

THE YORKSHIRE POST.

"The piquant orchestration and bright rippling melodies of the score are the outstanding feature of the play, and include a haunting vocal waltz."

THE MANCHESTER COURIER.

"The Girl in the Taxi' should be booked for a long and prosperous career."

THE LEEDS MERCURY.

"It is certainly one of the most delightful of musical comedies."

THE NOTTINGHAM GUARDIAN.

"Pretty music, charming costumes, and sprightly songs and dialogue."

THE BIRMINGHAM POST.

"The company did full justice to the bright and catchy music."
