A SONG THAT APPEALS TO EVERY HEART

"SOMEBODY'S DARLING BOY"

By WM. A. DOWNS

Never in recent years has there been written a song that so instantly found favor with the public as this new ballad of Mr. Downs'.

"SOMEBODY'S DARLING BOY"

There is hardly a person, young or old, in the whole wide world who does not know of someone who was in the late World War, and nearly every one of us can instantly think of some particular case such as pictured in this song.

Hundreds of "our boys" who made the supreme sacrifice are buried "over there" and to their honor and memory this song is respectfully dedicated.

Read the story in the verse shown below and then play over the chorus and when doing so, just picture in your mind "somebody's darling boy" who bravely went forth to battle, but whom Fate decreed should not return.

This is a song that ought to be in every home. Beautiful title-page in five colors.

FIRST VERSE

At a little green mill at the foot of a hill, battered by shot and shell,
Lies an unmarked grave of a soldier brave, who was buried where he fell.
No one knew his name or from whence he came, but

AND NOW PLAY OVER THE CHORUS:

Some-bod - y". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand. The second system continues the vocal line with "some - one loved,..... Ar - mies have trod". The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic support. The third system concludes the chorus with the lyrics "o - ver that sod, Still that spot is watched o - ver by God.....". The piano accompaniment ends with a "poco rall." marking. The score is written in blue ink on a light background.
