THE ANGELS' WHISPER.

(A Superstition, of great beauty, prevails in Ireland, that when a Child smiles in its sleep, it is "talking to Angels.")

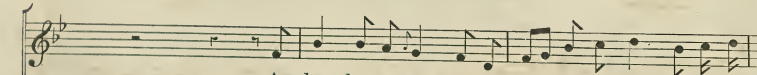

Written and Arranged by S. Lover Esq.

PIANO-FORTE.

 A ba - by was sleeping, Its mother was weeping, For her husband was far on the wild raging sea, And the tempest was swelling, Round the

fisherman's dwelling, And she cried, "Dermot darling, Oh come back to me"

Her beads while she number'd, The ba - by still slumber'd, And smild in her face as she bended her knee, "Oh bless'd be that warning, My child, thy sleep adorning, For I know that the angels are whispering with thee?"

sleep-ing, Oh pray to them soft-ly, my ba-by with me, And say thou wouldst ra-ther, They'd watch o'er thy Fa-ther, For I know that the an-gels are whispering with thee.

pp

The dawn of the morning, Saw Der-mot re-turn-ing, And the wife wept with joy her babe's fa-ther to see, And close-ly caressing Her child, with a blessing, Said "I knew that the an-gels were whis-pering with thee?"
