There is a hap-py land, far far a - way, That Cu - ban Is - land, —
 There is a hap-py crowd, sail - ing a - way On steam - ers dai - ly, —

— sweet Rock and Rye land, — I met a pal of mine leav - ing to - day,
 — all sing - ing gai - ly, — And they are shout - ing to friends on the pier,

And he said "I'm go - ing there to stay, — This old town has gone all wrong,
 "Sor - ry we must go a - way from here, — Pla - ces where we met each night

I want wom - en, wine and song, If you'll take my tip you'll come a - long:
 One by one are clos - ing tight, So there's on - ly one place now in sight:

Chorus

It will nev-er be dry down in Ha - va - na, — No mat-ter what hap - pens 'round here, — Down on San - ti - a - go Bay, where the Sen - o - ri - tas sway, "How dry I I'm as thirst-y as can be, pro - hib - i - tion ruin-ed me, You know you am" is a tune they nev - er play, Tho' they talk Span - ish in Ha - va - na, — Don't can't make your shim-mie shake on tea, They don't keep Be - vo in Ha - va - na, — And wor - ry, there's noth - ing to fear, — "Ya - ka hu - la Cu - ban - o - la" I have late-ly they nev - er heard — of Near Beer, — But the pri - vate stock they sell will knock you off your found, Is the way to say "Hey wait - er, bring an - oth - er round," It will nev - er be dry - feet, One drink makes a rab - bit chase a bull - dog up the street, — down in Ha - va - na — No mat-ter what hap - pens 'round here. It will here.
