

GLORIOUS COLUMBIA

A NATIONAL HYMN

WORDS BY

JAS. O'DEA.

MUSIC BY

ALFRED SOLMAN.

VICTOR KREMER
CHICAGO ILL.

GLORIOUS COLUMBIA.

JAS. O'DEA.

ALFRED SOLMAN.

L.H.

1. Co - lum - bia, pride of the pa - tri - ot's heart, By
 2. Co - lum - bia, long may thy sons ev - er guard Thy
 3. Co - lum - bia, land of the for - est and plain, O

lib - er - ty's fires ev - er light - ed;
 name from all deg - ra - da - tion,
 fair - est of na - tions, we hail thee;

Co - lum - bia, home of the Co - lum - bia, long may all Co - lum - bia, long may thy free - man, thou art, A na - tion where wrongs may be right - ed.

 man - kind re - gard Thy pro - gress with true ad - mi - ra - tion, chil - dren re - main A dread to all foes who would as - sail thee.

Blessed was the morn - ing that smiled on thy birth, Fa - vor - ite daugh - ter of When thou'rt as - sailed by the hand - of the foe Who would op - press thee with Guard well the spir - it that brought thee thy fame; Guard well thy fires..... of heav - en and earth, Long have you flour - ished and prov - en your worth, an - guish and woe, Then we will ral - ly, and help thee to show The free - dom a - flame; Then when the foe as - saults thy fair name,

Land of the free and u - nit - ed; Long have you flour - ished and strength of a young and might - y na - tion; Then we will ral - ly and Call us, and we nev - er will fail thee; Then when the foe as - prov - en your worth, The Land of the free and u - nit - ed!

help thee to show The strength of a young and might - y na - tion!
saults thy fair name, Call us, and we nev - er will fail thee.

