The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes. The key signature is three flats (B-flat major) and the time signature is 2/4.

I've been read-ing in the pa-pers that the price of food is high,
There's a say-ing in the Bi-ble that you all have heard a heap,

p

The first vocal line is on a single staff with lyrics underneath. The piano accompaniment is on two staves below, starting with a piano (p) dynamic. The music continues with a similar rhythmic pattern to the introduction.

"Cut the pri-ces, cut the pri-ces," is the Na-tion's cry, Now I've got a dan-dy lit-tle scheme
Just get bu-sy, just get bu-sy, don't you fall a-sleep, Nev-er mind the man a-cross the street,

The second vocal line continues the melody with lyrics. The piano accompaniment remains consistent, providing harmonic support for the vocal line.

that you all should try, Go and raise the things you need, the things too high to buy.
your own coun-cil keep, The Bi-ble says that as you sow, that is the way you'll reap.

The final vocal line concludes the piece with lyrics. The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord and a few notes in the bass line.

CHORUS

Plant a lit-tle gar-den in your own back yard Where the green-grass used to grow,

p-f

Plant some nice po-ta-toes, and some red to-ma-toes, Buy a rake and

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand. The lyrics are: "I'm go-ing o-ver the hills to Vir-gin-ia, — Back to an old sweetheart of mine; — Back where the bees and the i-vy — Cling to that hon-ey-suc-kle vine. — Back to the old oak-en buck-et, — — Back to those childhood days of yore; — I'm go-ing o-ver the".
