1, The flight of time can make no change with love like mine, so strong and true, And
 2. The ev'ning stars shine out so bright, each one a sto - ry seems to tell, Of if the years were man - y more, I still should care the same for you. You you, my own, my dear - est one, of you, the one I love so well. Such seem to doubt me dear, and why? Is it so strange I am the same, As love as mine can nev - er die, 'twill live for - ev - er and a day, In when you left me long a - go? Of course, dear heart, I could not change.... death the same as life, I swear, my love shall live for you al - way.....
