

Allegretto.

PIANO.

1. It's nice to hear young lovers talk, Their coo-ing is so sweet, It's
 2. And af-ter they fall dead in love, Of course they grow quite spooney, And nice to see such lov-ing ducks, Kneel at each oth-ers feet; She should you watch their ac-tions close, To you it seems quite looney; The says "ain't you my duck-y dear," Like lambkins they will play, But have a fuss and then the maid, Will shed a lit-tle tear, But when you keep your ears wide o - pen, This you hear them say:

 when these two be - gin to snif - fle, These words you may hear:

REFRAIN.

Waltz Time.

"Who loves ooh?..... I love ooh,..... If
 "Who loves ooh?..... I love ooh,..... If

Toot-sey should die What lov-ers would do, Who loves ooh?..... I love Toot-sey should die What would lov - ey do, Who loves ooh?..... I love ooh."..... If Toot-sey should die Why old gawk would die too;

 ooh."..... If Toot-sey should die Why old gawk would die too;

"Pid - gy loves Wid - gy, And Wid - gy loves ooh, Pid - gy's got Toots loves Woots, And Woots loves Toots, Toots bought gum-drops Give lov - ey a few, Toot-sey loves Woot-sey, And Woots a pair of new boots, Sweet-y loves Pete - y, And Woot-sey loves ooh, Toot-sey got wak-ey give lov-ey a chew."

 Pete-y loves Sweet, Sweetsticks to Pete like a Jer-sey mon-quit'.
