NEW AND POPULAR BALLADS BY FRANK DRAYTON.

Mother, Home and Heaven, (with chorus)..... 25 cts. A Mother's name is dear to all,— The first we lisp in infant days; And, when our golden youth hath flown, We love to sing it in our lays.	There is a Love that dieth not, (with chorus)... 25 cts. Though friendship's smiles from us depart, And cheerless be our lot, A mother's love is pure and true,— The love that dieth not.	I have no Home, (with chorus)..... 25 cts. A father dear, whose care I miss; A mother full of love, Who taught me, when I scarce could lisp, To trust in "Him" above.
Nobody's Boy, (with chorus)..... 25 " The flowers of Spring have passed away, And winter's chilling blasts have come; I'm here alone, a helpless lad, Without a friend, without a home.	My Old Thatch'd Cot, (with chorus)..... 25 " There are within that lowly cot Fond hearts that know no guile; And sparkling eyes, that long to greet Me with love's cheering smile.	I long to greet my dearest Friends, (chorus).... 25 " I long to greet my dearest friends Around the fireside hearth, In that sweet home so dear to me,— The spot that gave me birth.
Sweet Flowers..... 25 " With a lithographic title-page.	Won't you come along?..... 25 " Embellished with a beautiful lithograph.	I went to gather Flowers..... 25 " Full of Mischief, (with chorus)..... 25 " Millie Gay..... 25 " All that glitters is not Gold..... 25 " Our Baby..... 25 " I Love to Sing of the Days gone by..... 25 " Thou art gone, dearest Sister..... 25 "
Welcome, sweet Spring, (with chorus)..... 25 " Happy as a Queen, (with lithograph)..... 50 " Weep not for Me..... 25 " 'Tis Sweet to be Remembered..... 25 " Kind Friends at Home..... 25 "	My Happy Days were then..... 25 " The Old Man's Darling..... 25 " How Sweet are the Flowers of Spring..... 25 " I've lost my Darling Little Girl..... 25 " The Organ-Girl's Song..... 25 "

NEW AND BEAUTIFUL BALLADS BY MARIE MADWORT.

Having, at a very heavy outlay, purchased from this popular author a series of thirty Ballads, which are published under the head of "Lays of the Fireside," we flatter ourselves that the musical portion of the community will appreciate the efforts we are making to encourage American authors, by purchasing a copy of each of this lady's writings. The moral sentiments of the poetry, and the simplicity and beauty combined in the music, entitle them to a success such as no other author's has ever met. Among them will be found several sacred songs. They are arranged in such a manner as to suit the Melodeon as well as the Piano. Price, 25 cents each.

No. 1. The Old Chair by the Fire. 2. Sweet Home of my Childhood 3. Brighter Hours will come. 4. We parted in Youth 5. Blessed are the Merciful. 6. Happy Dreams of Home. 7. Better Late than Never. 8. Awake! gentle Lady. 9. I offer Thee no treasur'd Gold 10. In the Light of thine Eyes.	No. 11. Farewell to the Home of my Youth. 12. The First Rose of Spring-time. 13. Return of the Robin. 14. I'm coming, coming Home. 15. Blessed are They that mourn. 16. One Little Word. 17. Memory's Leaves. 18. Do not tarry long. 19. True Hearts are waiting, &c. 20. Meet Me in Heaven.	No. 21. The Golden Rule. 22. Good-by, Mother. 23. The Little Red Shoes. 24. The Family Altar. 25. The Mother's Dream. 26. Safe at Home. 27. Be always happy. 28. Bygone Days. 29. Fireside Jewels. 30. Little Rosy Cheeks.

HAWTHORNE LEAVES, BY CHARLES GROBE.

These consist of 26 Numbers, being Variations upon the popular Ballads of Alice Hawthorne. The sale of these variations is exceeded by no others of this favourite author's productions. Though but a short time since the first number was issued, yet some of the numbers have reached the 15th edition. As the fingering is all properly marked, they are well calculated for the use of learners and teachers. Price, 40 cents each number.

MISCELLANEOUS BALLADS.

I've loved Thee long. By J. W. PORTER..... 25 cts. This is a song of the sweetest character, both in sentiment and melody.	The Angel Friend. By W. GEIB, M.D..... 25 " This charming song is a particular favourite with all admirers of the ballad.	Day our Mother died..... 25 " One of the most touching ballads ever written. 20th edition just issued.	Dying Camille..... 25 " I am not the wild creature I seem..... 25 " Farewell! I may not see Thee more..... 25 " Oh, make my Grave in the Wildwood Shade..... 25 " What is Life without thy presence?..... 25 " Oh, woo me not from my Cottage Home..... 25 " Write to me often..... 25 " One Story's good till another is told..... 25 " A priceless Gem's a Sister's Love..... 25 " Our Starry Flag..... 25 " To the West..... 25 " A Suit of Russet Brown..... 12 1/2 " Nelly Bell, (Ethiopian)..... 25 "

POLKAS, MARCHES, &c.

Fireside Schottische. By FRANK DRAYTON. Immensely popular..... 25 cts. This schottische is one of the most pleasing productions that has ever been brought before the public.	Harvest Home Schottische. By W. C. PRATT..... 25 " Carnival Schottische..... 25 " Little Mischievous Schottische..... 25 " Napoleon Schottische..... 25 " Mountain Schottische..... 25 " Rustic Polka..... 25 " Dearest Schottische..... 25 " Prairie Polka..... 25 " Castanet Polka..... 25 " Daisy Polka..... 25 " Frankford Polka..... 25 " Pleasure Polka..... 25 " Wissahiccon Polka..... 25 " Baxter's March..... 25 " This march is recommended as one of uncommon merit: there are so few good marches at the present day, that those who desire something pleasing and really beautiful will not be disappointed in purchasing this.	Capt. Lyle's Quickstep. By W. GEIB, M.D..... 25 " Full of life and melody. This is not excelled by any other piece of a martial character, being the "ne plus ultra" of all quicksteps extant.	Shells of Ocean Quickstep..... 25 " Capt. M'Clean's Quickstep..... 25 " Introducing the popular melody of "What is Home without a Mother?"	Bunker Hill March..... 12 1/2 " National Dead March..... 15 " Magnolia Waltz..... 12 1/2 " Estelle Waltz..... 12 1/2 " Sanford Waltzes..... 50 " These are of the most brilliant character.
