

"A Song Sung Often When Once Sung"

WAIT, MISTER POSTMAN!

(ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.)

Copyrighted 1894 by THE LILOC MUSIC COMPANY.

BELLSMITH, PHOTO

*"Will mamma get this if it's mailed before seven,
The letter I've written to mamma in heaven?"*

WORDS BY STANLEY WOOD.

MUSIC BY HENRY HOUSELEY.

Copyrighted 1894,
By THE LILOC MUSIC COMPANY,
319 Dearborn St., Chicago.

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

WAIT, MISTER POSTMAN!

Words by STANLEY WOOD.

Music by HENRY HOUSELEY.

Rather slow and expressive.

1. The post-man was late, And was
2. post-man was rough, But he
3. wait, and I'll read what I've poco animato.

p cres. f rit. p p

Ped. *

run-ning a - long, To gath - er the let - ters in time, When he heard a sweet voice, Like a paus'd and look'd down, And saw a wee bit of a girl, With trust - ing blue eyes, And with writ - ten," said she, "Dear ma - ma I'm lone some and sad, Since you went far a - way, Won't you

p molto rit.

mead - ow - lark's song, Or a mel - low - ton'd sil - ver bell's chime.
tress - es of brown, Wreath'd in man - y a beau - ti - ful curl.
please send for me? If you would, I'd be ev - er so glad.

molto rit. p pp

Ped. *

A la valse.

Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, Don't hur - ry so fast, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, I've Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, Please bend down your head, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, My Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, Don't hur - ry a - way, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, And caught you at last, This let - ter must go In the mail be - fore seven, The ma - ma is dead, This let - ter must go In the mail be - fore seven, The an - swer me, pray, Will ma - ma get this, If it's mail'd be - fore seven? The let - ter I've writ - ten to ma - ma in heav'n, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, Don't let - ter I've writ - ten to ma - ma in heav'n, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, Please let - ter I've writ - ten to ma - ma in heav'n, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, Don't Wait, Mister Postman. 3.

hur - ry so fast, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, I've caught you at last, This bend down your head, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, My ma - ma is dead; This hur - ry a - way, Wait, Mis - ter Post - man, And an - swer me, pray, Will let - ter must go In the mail be - fore sev - en, The let - ter I've writ - ten to let - ter must go In the mail be - fore sev - en, The let - ter I've writ - ten to ma - ma get this, If it's mail'd be - fore sev - en, The let - ter I've writ - ten to cres. rit.

1st. & 2d. verses.
ma - ma in heav'n.....

f rit.

Tempo 1mo. 3rd. verse.
2d. The
3d. Please ma - ma in heav'n?.....

p

Wait, Mr. Postman. 3.

"WAIT, MISTER POSTMAN," By Stanley Wood and Henry Houseley. Song of the day. 40 cents.

"WAIT, MISTER POSTMAN WALTZ," for piano, arranged by Henry Houseley. 50 cents.

"THE OLD LETTER BOX," a descriptive song with refrain, by Stanley Wood and George Schleiffarth. 50 cents.

"THE LITTLE MAID WAS NOT AFRAID." Written by Stanley Wood; composed by Henry Houseley.
50 cents.

"DRIFTING SNOW." Pathetic Song. Written by Stanley
Wood; composed by Henry Houseley. 40 cents.

THE LAKOTA TWO STEP. The latest triumph of George Schleiffarth, the King of Two Step Composers. 40
cents.

FOR SALE BY ALL MUSIC DEALERS.

PUBLISHED BY THE LILOC MUSIC CO.

319 Dearborn St.
CHICAGO, ILL.