When good St. Patrick first arrived in dear old Ireland,
 A brass band came to meet him, but it was no Irish band,
 Who marched before the Irish, and their music loudly played,
 Who always led the Irish when they wanted to parade?

Chorus.

It was the Dutch — It was the Dutch,
 Could an Irishman play penochle and win?
 Not much:
 It was the Dutch — It was the Dutch.
 Who first invented bands?
 It was the Dutch.

5.

Who first laid out the Bowery, New York's most famous walk?
 Where every Reuben gets laid out, when he comes to New York,
 Who catches all the barking dogs, that wake us up from our sleep?
 Who built up Coney Island where the frankfurters are cheap?

Chorus.

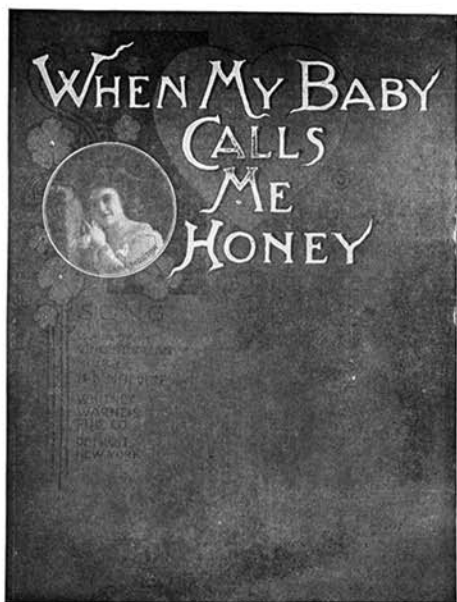

It was the Dutch — It was the Dutch,
 Could a Japanese discover wienerwurst?
 Not much:
 It was the Dutch — It was the Dutch.
 Who first invented sausage?
 'Twas the Dutch.

6.

Who filled our best society with Knickerbocker names?
 Who was it that first started our exclusive Holland Dames?
 Who makes the famous Holland Gin that tonic for the throat?
 And when we wanted submarines who built the Holland boat?

Chorus.

It was the Dutch — It was the Dutch,
 Did Teddy Roosevelt's people come from Spain?
 Not much:
 It was the Dutch — It was the Dutch
 Who built up Dutches County?
 'Twas the Dutch.
