Words and Music by SCOTT JOPLIN.

This life is ver - - y sad to me, a sor - row fills my I'll ne'er for - get the days I've passd, with Grace, so kind and heart, My sto - ry I will tell to you, from me my true, She was to me each day more joy than all the love did part,----- The vil - lage church bell sad - ly tolled, the girls I knew,----- My love for her will ne'er grow cold though one I loved had died,----- She was a treas - ure more than she has passed a - way,----- I'll love her still . when I am gold, when she was by her side.----- But now she's gone be - old e'en to my dy - ing day.----- But now I must con -

- yond re - call, in a si - - lent tomb she sleeps, ----- The
 - tent my - self, her mem - o - ry to love, ----- For one I loved yet best of all has left me here to weep; Though Grace the dar - ling of my heart is in the land a - bove; But death so ruth - less stole my love, my dear and on - ly Grace, I've still to cheer me at my home an im - age of dear Grace, Is yet a treas - ure in this world, A pic-ture of her face. It all the treas - ure I now have, A pic-ture of her face.
