There is a game played by near - ly ev - 'ry fam - i - ly Seems to be the
This lit - tle board is the rul - er of the nat - ion now Some game talk of thing Rich folks and poor folks play this lit - tle game to see what fun Right in your own home set - tles an - y lit - tle row most fu - ture days may bring Right a - cross — the hall from me — there lives a girl - ie ev - 'ry home has one Old maids love — it most to death — and play it night — and dear — And when her girl — friends call each night — Why this is what I hear.

day — And one maid laughed — and lost her breath — When she heard one girl say.

Chorus

Wee Gee Wee Gee tell me do — Tell me if my lov-ing ba-by loves me true. —
 Wee Gee Wee Gee tell me do — Are the men who mar-ry girl-ies al-ways true? —

Tell me quick — and tell me fast — is our love too pure and good to real-ly last — Oh
 Should the sup - per tab-le wait — for the ones who real-ly love to come home late — Oh

Wee Gee Wee Gee you know me — I will nev-er tell him don't you see?
 Wee Gee Wee Gee should I swear — If up-on his coat I found a hair?

Once he used to bring me cand-y by the box — Now he on-ly calls to have me
 If your hus-band talk-ing in his sleep says "Pearl" — Does it mean a pres-ent or some darn his socks — Is he true — the sly old fox — Tell me Wee Gee do. do.

 oth-er girl — Is it girl — or is it pearl? — Tell me Wee Gee do. do.
