"When The Night Birds Call"

A BALLAD OF THE SOUTH.

This is one of the prettiest songs written in years. It is tender in sentiment, with words that are truly poetic, wedded to a melody that is sweet and tuneful. The refrain is a dainty bit of music that lingers long in the memory. The song stands forth as a little classic among the ballads of the day.

Mingle your Eye-brows with mine.

An African Courtship.

Words by LOUIS WESLYN

Music by SOPHUS JERGENSEN

CHORUS.

"Min-gle your eye-brows with mine, babe! Love me as nig-gers love down South, I'm tired of for-mal-i-ty, I want more re-al-i-ty! I want to be kissed square-ly on the mouth.

Tell me you loves me to dis-trac-tion; Make them big eyes with passion

When the Night Birds Call.

Words by LOUIS WESLYN

Music by SOPHUS JERGENSEN

CHORUS.

In the twi-light when night is fall-ing
When the night birds be-gin their call-ing We will meet low, and loud - by street low, Whip-ping sweet love, When the Night Birds call.

"Mingle Your Eyebrows With Mine"

An African Courtship.

HERE IS A COON SONG THAT IS REALLY FUNNY IN CONCEPTION AND CATCHY IN MELODY. THERE IS NOTHING COARSE ABOUT IT, THE HUMOR BEING CLEAN-CUT AND LEGITIMATE. THE CHORUS IS IRRESISTIBLE; IT SETS THE FEET GOING IN TIME TO THE JOLLY TUNE. ARTIE HALL, THE FAMOUS "GEORGIA GIRL," AND OTHER VAUDEVILLE STARS ARE SINGING THIS SONG WITH GREAT SUCCESS
