First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The music features complex chordal textures and melodic lines in both hands.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece with similar complex textures and melodic development.

Third system of musical notation, featuring an 8va (octave) marking above the treble staff in the second measure, indicating an octave shift.

Fourth system of musical notation, showing dense chordal passages and intricate melodic lines.

Fifth system of musical notation, including an 8va marking above the treble staff in the third measure.

Sixth system of musical notation, concluding the page with an 8va marking above the treble staff in the fourth measure.

The musical score is presented in six systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The notation includes various rhythmic values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Dynamic markings, specifically the number '8' with a dotted line, are placed above certain notes in the first, second, and third systems. The piece ends with a double bar line at the end of the sixth system.

MORNING CY BARN DANCE

The big Jolly Melodious tune-ful Hit of the season. Fits any occasion. The accepted tune for the famous BARN DANCE and the only tune that fits the Barn Dance Step.

The biggest musical novelty hit ever published. A universal success played by nearly every Band and Orchestra in the country.

MORNING CY is also published as a bright and jolly Comedy Song
