

Bye - Bye My Babykins Bye - Bye

Words by Gene Jefferson
Music by
Wm H Penn

Sung by Clarice
Vance

published by permission of Sol Bloom Chicago. Owner of Copyright

MUSIC SUPPLEMENT OF HEARST'S CHICAGO AMERICAN, CHICAGO, SUNDAY, JUNE 16, 1901—PAGES 5-8

BYE-BYE MY BABYKINS, BYE-BYE.

Words by
GENE. JEFFERSON.

Music by
WILLIAM H. PENN.

INTRO.

Till a day or two a-go I was so hap-py; Nev-er
I done told her dat when she was tired of roam-in', Dat a-had no trouble with my gal; And tho'oth-er coons were hav ing lots of she could come right back to me Den I give her all my lit - tle bunch of wor-ry I was cer - tain sure a-bout my Sal; But she mon-ey And I made her take the front door key. Thought she'd told me dat she loved an - oth - er nig-ger, And she weak - en, but she did - en't and she left me In a packed her trunk and went a - way, But I loved her and al-tho' she done gone migh-ty mean and reck - less way, And al-tho' my heart was ach-in', most to shook me Still to her this I did say:

bust-in', To my ba - by I did say:

poco. rit. sfz

CHORUS.

Moderato.

Bye Bye, my Ba-by-kins, Bye Bye! You is a leav-ing me now;

But I aint go-ing to hold you — Aint gwine to raise no row.

Hon-ey, you'se leaving a good thing, Shaking an honest old pal; I loves you but you'se turned me loose, so Bye Bye, my Babykins gal!

rit. f a tempo f