A BEAUTIFUL BALLAD:

"MOTHER AND ME."

A GREAT FAVORITE

PRICE 2/-, POSTED 2/2.

I Don't Suppose.

I don't suppose the gift meant much to you,
Your parting gift to me—an opening flower;
To you 'twas but a rosebud sweet with dew,
It's life an hour! It's life an hour.

I don't suppose the gift cost much to give,
A touch of hands, a glance, a fleeting smile;
A whispered hope in sweetness it might live
A little while! A little while!

That you would care, if ever you should know,
Not even in my dreams do I suppose!
Still, one sweet mem'ry sets the past a glow,
It is a rose, a faded rose.

A BEAUTIFUL SONG:

"FOR YOU A ROSE, FOR ME—A MEMORY."

Go to sleep my ba-by, Close your pret-ty eyes, An-gels up a - bove you, Peep-ing at you dear - inform the stars, Great big moon is shining, Stars be-gin to peep, Time for lit-tle pic-ca-
