

BEAUTIFUL EGGS

Introduced with Wonderful Success by
JULIETTE DIKA

Words by ALFRED BRYAN
Music by HERMAN PALEY

PALEY MUSIC CO.
145 W. 45th ST.
NEW YORK

Beautiful Eggs

Words by ALFRED BRYAN

Music by HERMAN PALEY

Moderato

Piano

f fz

Vamp p

Farm-er Brown he was a Ma-ry Brown was ve-ry

wise old jay,— His chick-en farm paid like a charm, quick to learn, Learned something new, each day or two.

He bought all the chick-ens he could buy, When the price of eggs was She knew that the chick-en caught their eye, Not the eggs they came to high, ——— He would send his daugh - ter, Mar - y Ann, —

buy. ——— Mar - y went and bought a slit - skirt gown, —

Down to the mark - et each day, ——— There she would stand, Wore it to mark - et, they say, ——— Dressed up in style, bask-et in hand, Sel - ling eggs to all who came her way. ——— wear-ing a smile, She did a rush - ing busi-ness ev - ery day. ——— rall.

CHORUS

Beau-ti - ful eggs, ——— she had such beau-ti - ful eggs, ——— And ev - 'ry

p-f

Red.

mor-ning to town Dressed up in brown She'd bring her lit - tle bask-et, all load-ed down, With such beau - ti - ful eggs, she sold those beau - ti - ful eggs, And tho' the pri - ces were high, All were an-xious to buy, Her beau - ti - ful, beau - ti - ful eggs. — eggs. —