Some-where down in Geor-gia, Some-where far a - way — I see a - lone - ly Still the same old cab - in, Ma - ny years have passed — Now mam-my's pick - i - cab - in And a mam-my old and gray — To her lit - tle pick - i - nin - y, Who has nin - y Is a grown up man at last — And when shad-ows come a creep-ing He re - start-ed in to cry — She says hush a bye my ba-by Then she sings this lul-la - by. — flects the days gone bye — How she used to stop his weep-ing When she sang this lul-la - by. —

Chorus

You are just a lit-tle pan-sy But you're sweet-er than a rose — You are mam-my's lit-tle flow-er And the fair-est one that grows 'Cause you are black chile don't you mind As long as you are good and kind— The one a-bove will al-ways love you, love you, He'll be think-ing of you for you're mam-my's lit-tle an-gel Stop your pin-ing don't you cry.— 'Cause you're mam-my's lass-es can-dy Just as good as pump-kin pie— Heart as white as snow-flakes Your old mam-my knows— You are just a lit-tle pan-sy But you're sweet-er than a rose.— You are rose.—
