This is the same old sto - ry, Of fall - ing deep in love;..... Were sure to meet some When part - ed, we are lone - ly, And when we meet a - gain ..... We talk and chat of crea - ture sweet, As thro' the world we rove ..... I'm caught at last in this and that, And sing love's sweet re - frain ..... The time is nev - - er Cu - pid's net, I love an an - gel fair, ..... O, she's as dear as wea - - ry then, With wings it seems to fly, ..... And while we sit with life to me, And drives me to des-pair..... And does she smile or give me cheer, Or arms entwined, To kiss my love I try..... And don't you think that I suc-ceed, While let me whis-per in her ear, Or sing of love with voice so bland, Or let me press the by her side I fond-ly plead "Oh, love be mine! My life you'll bless? Does she con-sent or
