

JOAN OF ARC

115

115

115

SONG

LYRIC BY
ROBERT F. RODEN
MUSIC BY
JAMES KENDIS

GERALDINE FARRAR
AS "JOAN OF ARC"
CECIL B. DeMILLE'S
GREAT PHOTOPLAY PRODUCTION

The CADILLAC Music Co. INC 1416 BROADWAY
NEW YORK

SOLE SELLING AGENTS ... MAURICE RICHMOND MUSIC CO. INC ... 145 WEST 45TH St. NEW YORK

Joan Of Arc.

Words by ROBERT F. RODEN.

Song.

Music by JAMES KENDIS.

Allegro.

Piano. ff

Andante moderato.

I hear the bells at twi-light chime, And a pic-ture comes to
And as I dream the long years fade, It is ves-per time a - me, — Of a shep-herd maid of the old-en time in Lor-raine a-cross the gain, — Saint Mich-ael comes to the shep-herd maid, as he did in fair Lor -

sea. — I see her there in her sim-ple dress, The mar-tyred sold-ier shep-herd ess. — raine. — I hear him say, in the twi-light glow, "Go forth and save France from the foe." —

Chorus.

Still in the hearts of her coun - try men. Her spir - it lives, I know, Bid - ding them fight for their nat - ive land, As in the long a - go And to the strains of the "Mar - seil - laise"

Brave - ly they plunge in the bat - tle haze like the shep - herd maid of the old - en days, Fair Jo - an of Arc. Arc. gva