Let me linger in my memory's garden here,
 Let me dream that you will love me sometime, dear,
 Dreams, just in dreams there I meet you,
 You, if you could but care,
 Let me linger in the past a little while,
 Dreams of you will all my cares and pain
 beguile,
 In memory life is love's melody
 In my memory's garden here,
 Let me dream, dear.
 Let me linger, dear.

REFRAIN

My faith in Thee, my faith in Thee, shall never change,
 No matter what betide,
 'Tis like a star, in heaven above,
 A ray of light my steps to guide,
 When heartaches come, when hope is dimmed,
 When clouds appear, and dreary is my day,
 I know with me, Thy love will be,
 My faith in Thee, shall last away.

I am trusting in the promise
 Christ has made to me;
 I can hear His pray'rs of anguish,
 From Gethsemane.
 I am waiting in the shadows
 To my Saviour cling,
 Waiting, waiting, trusting still
 He will comfort bring.

When the busy day is over,
 When the night is still,
 Thou who marks the sparrow's fall,
 Be my comfort still.
 In the lonely hours of sorrow
 Benediction bring,
 Thou, O Christ, the Rock of Ages,
 Trustingly I cling.

Copyright 1914 by J. W. Jenkins Sons Music Co., Kansas City, Mo.

Mother rocks her babe to sleep,
Lullaby Moon;
Little stars come out to peep
While she softly croons.
Hush, my baby,
Go to sleep,
Sand man's coming soon.
Sailing on to dreamland under lullaby moon

Sail away in silver boats on lake o' dreams While the cricket sings his song by the drowsy streams;
Cuddle close to mother's breast, you'll be drifting soon;
Close your eyes and go to sleep,
Under Lullaby moon.
