Olden Golden Days

Music by BOB ALLAN

But with the dawn My crown was given, still pouring out sad and soft rain.
 I be-cause, The days I can never be, yet Oth-er gold-en days, and your sweet old faith-ful hand ways.

You are my Queen that is-oh, yes, I was a King with-out a-y crown, Back through mem-ory's lane My sin-ner's eye stops, My love by heart, yours, I long to be, To these old-en, gold-en days

REFRAIN (Group with response)

There's a star in the East that is ship- ing. While it glows all my dreams are of you, For it shows in the skies like the love in your eyes. And I know that your heart still is true. Like the star of the Sea it is bringing a mes- sage from His lov- a - ble. Though a star in the East that is shin- ing, While it shows we shall all ways love. There's a love
