A MUSICAL
MANUAL

Translated with various of definitions
And collected out of the best Authors in English, French, Spanish and Italian.

By Robert D. ...

TO THE RIGHT HO-NORABLE SYR ROBERT
SYDNEY, KNIGHT: Lord Governour of
Vlissingen, and the Castle of Ramekins, Lord SYDNEY of Penshurst, Viscount Lisle, and Lord Chamberlaine to the Queenes
most excellent Maiestie.

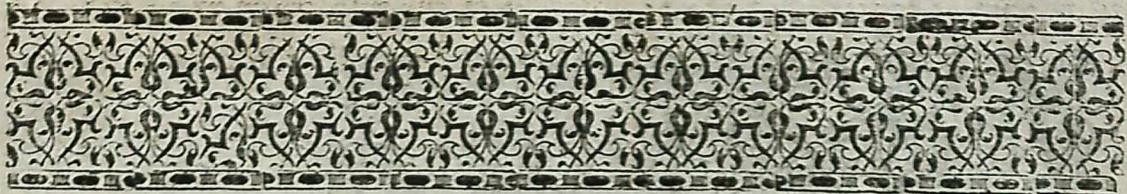

RIGHT Honourable Lord: Since my best abilitie is not able in the least manner to counteruaile that dutie J owe vnto your Lordship, for two great respects; the one in regard (your Lordship vndertaking for mee) J was made a member of the Church of Christ, and withall receiued from you my name: the other the loue that you beare to all excellency and good learning, (which seemeth hæreditarie aboue others to the Noble Familie of the Sydneys,) and especially to this excellent Science of Musicke, a skill from all antiquity entertayned with the most Noble & generous dispositions.

May it please your Honour therefore to accept these my first labours, as a poore pledge of that zeale and dutie which J shall euer owe vnto your Honour, vntill time shall enable me to effect something more worthy of your Lordships view, hauing no other thing saue these few sheetes of Paper to present the same withall.

To your Honour

in all dutie most deuoted,

Robert Douland.

TO THE READER.

GENTLEMEN: Finding my selfe not deceiued in the hope I had of your kinde entertayning my collected Lute-lessons which I lately set forth, I am further encouraged to publish vnto your censures these A Y R E S, being collected and gathered out of the labours of the rarest and most iudicious Maisters of Musick that either now are or haue lately liued in Christendome, whereof some I haue purposely sorted to the capacite of young practioners, the rest by degrees are of greater depth and skill, so that like a carefull Confectionary, as neere as might be I haue fitted my Banquet for all tastes; if happily I shall be distasted by any, let them know what is brought vnto them is drest after the English, French, Spanish and Italian manner: the assay is taken before, they shall not need to feare poysoning. You Gentlemen and friends that come in good-will, and not as Promooters into a country Market, to call our viands into question, whatsoeuer here is, much good may it doe you, I would it were better for you: for the rest I wish their lips such Lettuce as Silenus Assè, or their owne harts would desire.

Thine, Robert Dowland.

 most excellent Maiestie, his Galliard.

The musical score is written on ten systems of three staves each. The notation is a form of early modern mensural notation, likely for lute or guitar. It features various note values (minims, crotchets, quavers), rests, and clefs (treble and bass). The music is organized into measures by vertical bar lines. The notation includes many accidentals (sharps, flats, naturals) and some letters (a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, i) placed above or below the notes, possibly indicating fingerings or specific pitches. The piece concludes with a double bar line and the text 'Finis. Iohn Dowland, Batchelar of Musick.'

Can abide to keepe no measure.
Merry flocke such one forgoe,
Vnto whom Myrth is displeasure,
Onely rich in measures treasure.

3 Yet alas before you goe
Heare your wofull Maisters story,
Which to stones I else would shew,
Sorrow onely then hath glory
When tis excellently sorry.

4 Stella, fayrest Shepherdesse,
Fayrest but yet cruelst euer.
Stella, whom the heau'ns still blesse,
Though against me she perseuer,
Though I blisse inherit neuer.

5 Stella, hath refused mee :
Stella, who more Loue hath proued
In this Catiffe hart to be
Then can in good to vs be moued
Towards Lambe-kins best beloued.

6 Stella hath refused mee
Astrophel, that so well serued,
In this pleasant spring (Muse) see
While in pride Flowers be preferu'd
Himselfe onely Winter-starued.

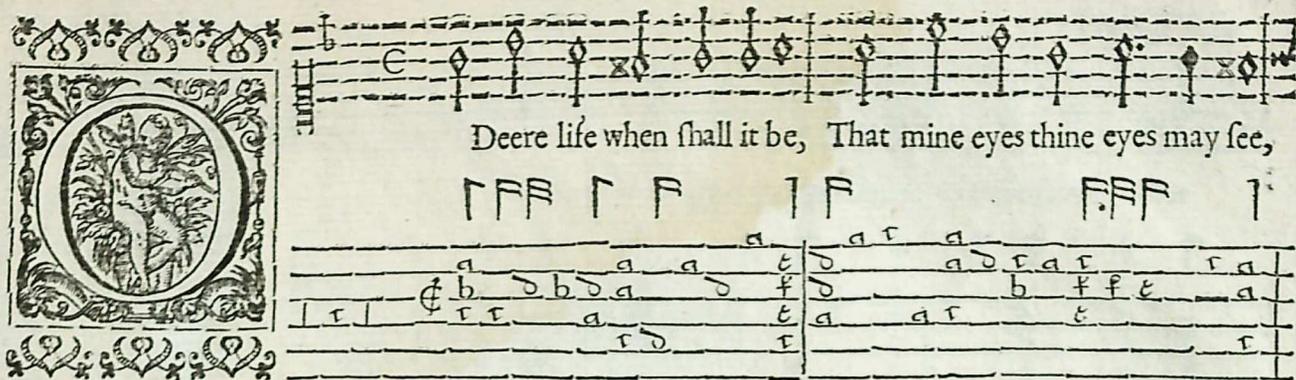

7 Why alas then doth she swear
That she loueth mee so deerely,
Seeing mee so long to beare
Coales of Loue that burne so cleerely,
And yet leaue me hopelesse meerely.

8 Is that Loue? forsooth I trow
If I saw my good Dogge grieued
And a help for him did know
My Loue should not be belieued
But hee were by mee relieued.

9 No she hates mee (well away)
Fayning Loue, somewhat to please mee,
Knowing, if she should display
All her hate, Death soone would seize me,
And of hideous torments ease me.

10 Then my flocke now adew,
But alas, if in your straying
Heauenly Stella meet with you,
Tell her in your pittious blaying,
Her poore slaues iust decaying.

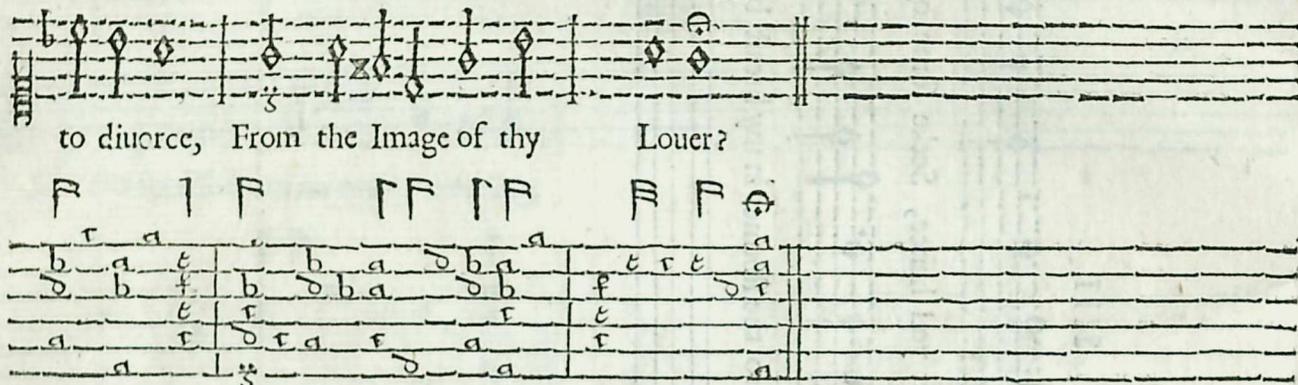

Deere life when shall it be, That mine eyes thine eyes may see,

And in them thy minde discover, Whether absence hath had force, Thy remembrance to diuerce, From the Image of thy Louer?

2 O if I my selfe finde not,
 By thine absence oft forgot,
 Nor debarde from Beauties treasure:
 Let no Tongue aspire to tell
 In what high I shall dwell,
 Onely Thought aymes at the pleasure.

3 Thought therefore will I send thee,
 To take vp the place for mee,
 Long I will not after tarry:
 There vnseene thou mayst be bolde
 Those fayre wonders to behold,
 Which in them my hopes doe carry.

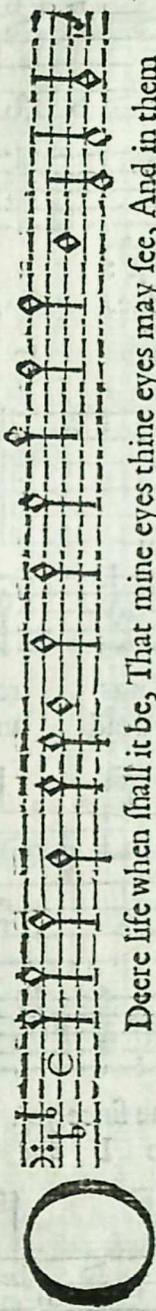

4 Thought, see thou no place forbear,
 Enter brauely euery where,
 Seize on all to her belonging:
 But if thou wouldest guarded be,
 Fearing her beames, take with thee,
 Strength of liking, rage of longing.

5 O my Thoughts, my thoughts, surcease,
 Your delights my woes increase,
 My life fleetes with too much thinking:
 Thinke no more, but dye in mee
 Till thou shalt receiued be
 At her lips my Nectar drinking.

2 Astrophell with Stella sweet
Did for mutuall comfort meet,
Both within themselues oppressed,
But either in each other blessed.

3 Him great harmes had taught much care
Her faire necke a foule yoke bare,
But her sight his care did banish,
In his sight her yoke did vanish.

4 Wept they had, alas the while,
But now teares themselues did smile,
While their eyes by Loue directed,
Interchangeably, reiected.

5 Sigh'd they had: but now betwixt
Sighs of woe were glad sighs mixt,
With Armes crost, yet testifying
Restlesse rest, and liuing dying.

6 Their cares hungry of each word
Which the deare tongue would afford:
But their tongues restrain'd from walking,
Till their harts had ended talking.

7 But when their tongues could not speake,
Loue it selfe did silence breake:
Loue did see his lips asunder,
Thus to speake in Loue and wonder.

Faire Triumphres in annoy:

Are the lights of Cupids skyes,
Whose beames when they are once darterd,
Loue therewith is straight imparted.

10 Stella, whose voice when it speakes,
Senses all asunder breake:
Stella, whose voyce when it singeth,
Angels to acquaintance bringeth.

11 Stella, in whose body is,
Writ the Characters of blisse:
Whose sweet face all beautie passeth,
Saue the minde which it surpasseth.

12 Graunt, O graunt, but speach (alas)
Failes me, fearing on to passe:
Graunt to me, what am I saying?
But no fault there is in praying.

13 Graunt (O deere) on knees I pray,
(Knees on ground hee then did stay)
That not I but since I proue you,
Time and place from mee nere moue you.

14 Neuer season was more fit,
Neuer roome apt for it:
Smiling ayre allows my reason,
These Birds sing, now vse the season.

See how it leaues leaues doth kisse,
Each tree in his best attyring,
Sence of Loue to Loue inspyring.
